

Hon. Paul Banner

◆ Sitting by assignment, Presiding

Judge in Texas District and County
Courts (1995 – present)

◆ 196th District Court of Texas (1983 –1994)

E S T A B L I S H E D as a solid member of the Texas judiciary, Judge Banner has honorably served the communities of both Dallas and Hunt Counties. As a trial judge with more than 20 years experience, Judge Banner has presided over a variety of cases including business and commercial disputes, personal injury, and family matters. In addition, he has special expertise in asbestos cases.

Judge Banner's judicial service is enhanced by 24 years in general private practice, including criminal prosecution and as a civil advisor to county government.

Judge Banner's solid legal foundation began by earning his bachelor's degree at Texas A & M (Commerce) in 1960 followed by a J.D. from Baylor University in 1962.